This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE ANGLO-SAXON VERSION

THE HOLY GOSPELS.

PREFACE.

To Dr. Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, the preserver of our Saxon manuscripts and restorer of Saxon learning, we owe the first edition of the Anglo-Saxon version of the four Gospels.* The second edition is that of Dr. Marshall,† Rector of Lincoln College, Oxford, accompanying the Gothic version, as given by Francis Junius With respect to the text of these editions, that of Parker's may be regarded as a faithful impression of a late manuscript,‡ showing the tongue in its decline, and when rapidly verging towards that state of barbarism into which it sank about the beginning of the twelfth century. Marshall's edition exhibits an earlier, though, perhaps, not a purer text, which the singularly unfortunate idea of its editor, of supplying the omissions of the Saxon version, sometimes (and not always grammatically) by his own words, and at others, from the old Northumbrian glosses,§ has, moreover, greatly contributed to vitiate.

* In small quarto, printed at London in 1571, with a dedication to Queen Elizabeth, by Foxe, the martyrologist.

† In quarto, printed at Dordrecht in 1665. Some copies bear on the title-page "Amstelaedami, A° 1684."

‡ Apparently Bodl. No. 441.

§ MS. Cott. Nero D. 4. and Gl. Rushw. MS. Bodl.

These works having become extremely scarce, it was thought that a new edition of THE EARLIEST ENGLISH VERSION OF THE GOSPELS, free from the objections above mentioned, and in form more convenient than the preceding ones, even though without pretension to the character of critical, would not be unacceptable at a time, when our old language and literature were gradually emerging from the state of neglect in which they long had lain, in the birthland of Beda, of Alcuine, of Aelfred, and of Aelfric.

The basis of the present text is the Cod. Bibl. Pub. Cant. Ii. 2. 11, collated with Cod. C.C.C.C. S. 4. 140. In doubtful cases Cod. Bodl. 441. and Cod. Cott. Otho, C. 1. have also been consulted.

The monkish character has been rejected. The accent, or rather mark indicating a long syllable, will be found, as in the manuscripts, rather capriciously applied. In the division of syllables I have deemed it more advisable to separate the servile portion of a word from its root, than to follow the rules of modern English or German orthography. The punctuation, as far as the different genius of the two languages, or occasional variations of translation admit, is conformable to that of the authorized English version.

PREFACE

TO THE AMERICAN EDITION.

In issuing the Anglo-Saxon or "Earliest English" Version of the Gospels from the American Press, the Editor has not deviated in the least particular from the text as set forth in the following Preface, with the exception of one further change in the characters employed—the substitution of th for Ð, and of th for Þ, as in his "Grammar of the Anglo-Saxon Language," and in his "Analecta Anglo-Saxonica." By this change the typography is rendered more uniform, and the general appearance of the text improved.

This reprint is now laid before the public with the hope that it may conduce to the study of the language of our forefathers, as well as to a still higher purpose.

And ṭha he com to his earde, he laerde hig on hyra ge- 54

samnungum, swa þaet hig wundredon, and cwaedon 55 Hwanon ys þysum þes wisdom, and þis maegen? Wit odlice þes ys smiþes sunu; hú ne hatte hys modor Maria, and his brothru, Iacob, and Ioseph, and Simon, and Iudas?
56 and hú ne synd ealle hys swustra mid us? hwanon synd
57 þysum ealle þas þing? And hig waeron geúntreowsode on hym. Tha sothlice saede se Haelend hym: Nys nan witega butan wurthscype, buton on hys earde, and on 58 hys huse. And he ne worhte þaer manega maegena, for heora ungeleaffulnysse.

XIV. On þaere tide gehyrde Herodes, se feorþan-daeles
2 rica, þaes Haelendes hlisan: and þa saede he hys cnyhtum: Thes ys Iohannes se Fulluhtere, þe ic beheafdode;
he aras of deaþe, and forþan synd þas wundru gefremode
3 on hym. Sothlice Herodes nam Iohannem, and geband hyne, and sette on cwertern, for þam wife Herodiaden
4 Philippes hys broþer. Iohannes hym saede: Nys þe
5 alyfed hig to wife to habbanne. And þa he hyne ofslean wolde, he ádred hym þaet folc, forþam þe hig haefdon 6 hyne for aenne witegan. Tha on Herodes gebyrd-daege, tumbude þaere Herodiadiscan dohter beforan hym, and 7 hyt licode Herode. Tha behet he mid aþe, hyre to syllanne 8 swa hwaet swa heo hyne baede. Tha cwaeth heo, fram hyre meder gemyngod: Syle me on ánum disce, Iohan-9 nes heafod, þaes Fulluhteres. Tha waes se cyning geún-10 rotsud for þam aþe, and for þam þe him saeton mid; and he asende þa, and beheafdode Iohannem on þam cwert-thonne hig hit gehyrath, sona cymth Satanas, and afyrth 16 thaet word the on heora heortan asawen ys. And tha synd gelice the synd ofer stan-scylian gesawen: sona thonne hig 17 thaet word gehyrath, and thaet mid blisse onfoth; and hig nabbath wyrt-ruman on him, ac beoth unstatholfaeste; and syththan up-cymth deofles costnung, and his ehtnys for tham 18 worde. Hig synd on thornum gesawen; thaet synd tha the 19 thaet word gehyrath, and of yrmthe, and swicdome woruld-welena, and othra gewilnunga, thaet word ofthrysmiath, and 20 synd buton waestme gewordene. And tha the gesawene synd ofer thaet gode land, tha synd the thaet word gehyrath, and onfoth, and waestm bringath, sum thrytigfealdne, 21 sum syxtigfealdne, and sum hundfealdne. And he saede him: Cwyst thu cymth thaet leoht-faet thaet hyt beo under bydene aset, oththe under bedde? Wite gere thaet hit sy 22 ofer candel-staef aset. Sothlice nys nan thing behydd, the ne sy geswutelod; ne nys digle geworden, ac thaet hit open-23 lice cume. Gehyre, gif hwa earan haebbe to gehyranne.

24 And he cwaeth to him: Warniath hwaet ge gehyron; and on tham gemete the ge metath, eow bith gemeten, and eow 25 bith yht. Tham bith geseald the haefth, and tham the naefth, 26 him bith aetbroden. And he cwaeth; Godes rice ys swylce 27 man wurpe god saed on his land, and sawe; and arise daeges and nihtes, and thaet saed growe and wexe, thonne 28 he nat. Sothlice sylf-willes seo eorthe waestm bereth; aer-est gaers, syththan ear, syththan fulne hwaete on tham eare.
29 And thonne se waestm hine forthbringth, sona he sent his dihte; thaet ge eton and drincon ofer mine mýsan on 30 mínum ríce; and ge sitton ofer thrym-setl, demende twelf maegtha Israhel. Tha cwaeth Dryhten: Simon, Simon, nu 31

Satanas gyrnde thaet he eow hridrode swá swá hwáete.
Ic gebaed for the, thaet thin geleafa ne ateorie: and thu, aet 32 sumum cyrre gewend, getryme thine gebrothru. Tha 33 cwaeth he: Dryhten, ic eom gearu to farenne mid the, ge on cwertern, ge on death. Tha cwaeth he: Ic secge the, 34
Petrus, ne craewth se hána to-daeg, aer thu me aetsaecst.
Tha cwaeth he to him: Tha ic eow sende butan seode, and 35 codde, and gescy, waes eow aenig thing wana? Tha cwaed-on hig: Nan thing. Tha cwaeth he: Ac nú, se the haefth 36 seod, gelíce nime codd: and se the naefth, sylle his tunec-an, and bycge him sweord. Sothlice ic eow secge, thaet 37 gyt scyl beon gefylled thaet be me awriten ys, And thaet he mid unrihtwisum geteald waes: witodlice tha thing the be me synd habbath ende. And hig cwaedon: Dryhten, 38 her synd twa sweord. And he cwaeth: Thaet ys genoh.
And aefter gewunan he út-eode on thaene Munt Oliuarum, 39
thaet ys, Ele-bergena; and hys leorning-cnyhtas hym filig-
don. And tha he com to thaere stówe, he saede hym: 40 Gebiddath thaet ge on costnunge ne gán. And he waes 41
fram him alocen swa mycel swa is anes stanes wyrp;
and gebigedum cneowum he hine gebaed, and cwaeth: 42
Faeder, gif thu wylt, afyr thysne calic fram me: theahhwaethere ne geweorthe min willa, ac thin. Tha aetywde 43
hym Godes engel of heofene, and hyne gestrangode.
And he waes on gewinne, and hine lange gebaed, and his 44 swat waes swylce blodes dropan on eorthan yrnende. And 45 tha he of gebede aras, and com to his leorning-cnyhtum, he hig funde slaepende for unrotnysse; and he saede 46 him: Hwi slape ge? arisath and biddath, thaet ge on cost-nunge ne gan. Hym tha tha gyt sprecendum, tha com thaet 47 wered, and him to-foran eode án of tham twelfum, se waes genemned Iudas; and he genealaehte tham Haelende, 48 thaet he hine cyste. Tha cwaeth se Haelend: Iudas, man-49 nes Sunu thu mid cosse sylst? Tha gesawon tha the him abutan waeron thaet thaer towerd waes, and cwaedon: Dryht-50 en, slea we mid sweorde? Tha sloh heora án thaera sa-51 cerda ealdres theow, and his swythre eáre of-acerf. Tha andswarode se Haelend: Laetath thus. And tha he aethran 52 his eáre, he hyt gehaelde. Tha cwaeth se Haelend to tham ealdormannum, and to tham witum, and thaes temples ealdrum: Ge ferdon swá swá to anum sceathan, mid 53 sweordum and mid sahlum, thaet ge me gefengon. Tha ic waes daeghwamlice on temple mid eow, ne athenedon ge eower handa on me: ac this is eower tid, and thrystra an-54 wald. Tha namon hig hine, and laeddon to thaera sacerda 55 ealdres huse. And Petrus fyligde feorran. And Petrus waes mid him on middan tham cafer-tune, thaer hig aet 56 tham fyre saeton. Tha hine geseah sum thinen aet leohte sittendne, and hine beheold, tha cwaeth heo: And thes 57 waes mid him. Tha aetsoc he, and cwaeth: Eala wif, ne 58 can ic hine. And tha ymbe lytel hine geseah other, and cwaeth: Thu eart of hym. Tha cwaeth Petrus: Eala man, 59 ic ne eom. And tha aefter lytlum faece, swylce ánre tide, sum other sethde, and cwaeth: Sothlice thes waes mid him:

60 witodlice he is Galileisc. Tha cwaeth Petrus: Eala man, nat ic hwaet thu segst. And tha hig thaet spraecon, sam-61 nunga sé hána creow. Tha Dryhten bewende hine, and beseah to Petre. Tha gemunde Petrus Dryhtnes wordes the he cwaeth, Thaet thu mín aetsaecst thrywa to-daeg, aer 62 se hána cráwe. Tha eode Petrus út, and biterlice weop.
63 And tha the thone Haelend heoldon hine bysmredon, and 64 beoton, and oferwrugon his ansyne, and thurcson his nebb, and acsedon hine: Araed, hwylc is se the sloh?
65 And manega othre thing hig hym to cwaedon, dysigende.
66 And tha tha daeg waes, tha togaedere comon thaes folces yldran, and thaera sacerda ealdormen, and bóceras, and laeddon hine to heora gemote, and cwaedon: Sege us 67 gif thu sy Crist. Tha cwaeth he: Theah ic eow secge, ge mé ne gelyfath: Theah ic eow acsige, ge ne andswariath 68 me, ne ne forlaetath. Heonon-forth bith mannes Sunu sit- 69 tende on Godes maegnes swythran healfe. Tha cwaedon 70 hig ealle: Eart thu Godes Sunu? Tha cwaeth he: Ge secgath thaet ic eom. And hig cwaedon: Hwi gyrne we 71 gyt gewitnesse? sylfe we gehyrdon of his muthe.

XXIII. Tha aras eall heora maenigeo, and laeddon hine 1 to Pilate; and agunnon hyne wregan, and cwaedon: 2 Thysne we gemétton forhwyrfende ure theode, and forbeodende thaet man tham Casere gafol ne sealde, and segth thaet he sig Crist Cyning. Tha acsode Pilatus hine: Eart 3 thu Iudea Cyning? Tha andswarode he: Thu hit segst.
Tha cwaeth Pilatus to tham ealdrum and tham werede: Ne 4 finde ic naenne intingan on thysum men. Tha hlyddon 5
hig, and cwaedon: He astyrath this folc, laerende thurh ealle Iudeam, agynnende of Galilea oth hider. Tha Pilatus ge- 6 hyrde Galileam, he acsode hwaether he waere Galileisc man. And tha he gecneow thaet he waes of Herodes an- 7 walde, he hine ágen-sende to Herode: he waes on tham dagum on Hierusalem. Sothlice Herodes fahnode tha he 8 thone Haelend geseah: mycelre tíde he wilnode hine geseon, fortham the he gehyrde mycel be him: and he hop-ode thaet he gesáwe sum tacen the fram him gewurde.
Tha acsode he hine manegum wordum; and he naht ne 9 andswarode. Tha stódon thaera sacerda ealdras hine an- 10 rædlice wregende. Tha oferhogode Herodes hine mid 11 his hyrede, and bysmrode hine, gescrydne hwitum reafe, and hine agen-sende to Pilate. And on tham daege wurd- 12 on Herodes and Pilatus gefrynd: sothlice hig waeron aér gefynd him betweonan. Tha cwaeth Pilatus to thaera 13 sacerda ealdrum, and duguthe ealdrum, and to tham folce:

14 Ge brohton mé ṭhysne man, swylce he ṭhys folc for-hwyrfde, and nu, beforan eow acsiende, ic nanne intingan findan ne maég on ṭhysum men, of ṭham ṭhe ge hine wreg-15 ath: ne furṭhon Herodes: ic hine sende agen to him;
16 and him naht ṭhaeslices deathe gedón waes. Ic hine ge-17 betne forlǽte. (Niede he sceolde him forgifan aenne to 18 heora freols-daege.) Tha hrymde eall ṭhaet folc aetgaedere, 19 and cwaeth: Nim ṭhisne, and forgif us Barrabban. (Se waes for sumere twy-raednysse and man-slyhte on cwert-20 ern asend.) Eft spaec Pilatus to him, and wolde forlaet-21 an ṭhone Haelend. Tha hrymdon hig, and cwaedon:
22 Ahoth hine, ahoth hine. Tha cwaeth he to him ṭhriddan sithe: Hwaet dyde ṭhes yfeles? ne gemette ic nan ṭhing yfeles on ṭhysum men, ṭhaet he sig deathes scyldig: ic hine 23 ṭhreage and forlaete. And hig astodon, and mycelre stéfne baédon ṭhaet he waere ahangen. And heora stefna 24 swithredon. * * * And he forgef him ṭhone ṭhe waes for man-slyhte and sumere sace on cwerterne, ṭhone hig baedon; and ṭhone Haelend he sealde to heora willan.
26 And ṭha hig hine laeddon, hig gefengon sumne Cyreniscne, Simonem, se com of ṭham tune, and ṭha rode him on 27 setton, ṭhaet he hig baére aefter ṭham Haelende. Him fylide mycel wered folces and wifa, ṭha hine heofon and 28 weopon. Tha cwaeth se Haelend bewend: Eala dohtra
Hierusalem, nelle ge ofer me wepan, ac wepath ofer eow 29 sylfe, and ofer eowre bearn. Forṭham ṭha dagas cumath, on ṭham hig cwethath, Eadige synd ṭha untymendan, and agynnath hig cwethan to ṭham muntum, Feallath ofer ús; 31 and to beorgum, Oferwreoth ús. Forṭham gif hig on grénum treowe ṭhas ṭhing doth, hwaet doth hig on ṭham drig 32 um? And mid him waeron gelaedde twegen othre mán-33 fulle, ṭhaet hig waéron ofslegene. And syththan hig comon on ṭha stowe, ṭhe ys genemned Caluarie, ṭhaet is, heafod-pannan stów, thaer hig hine hengon, and aenne sceathan on his swythran healfe, and otherne on his wynstran. Tha 34 cwaeth se Haelend: Faéder, forgif hym: fortham hig nyton hwaet hig doth. Sothlice hig daeldon his reaf, and wurpon hlótu. And thaet folc stod ge-anbidigende. And tha 35 ealdras hyne taeldon mid him, and cwaedon: Othre he gehaelde; gehaele hine sylfne, gif he sig Godes gecorena.

And tha cempan hine bysmredon, and him eced brohton, 36 and thus cwaedon: Gif thu sig Iudea cyning, gedo the 37 halne. Tha waes his ofer-gewrit ofer hine awríten Gre- 38
iscum stafum, and Ebreiscum, THIS IS IUDEA CYNING.
An of tham sceathum the mid him hangode hine gremede, 39 and cwaeth: Gif thu Crist eart, gehael the sylfne and unc.
Tha andswarode se other, and hine threade, and cwaeth: Ne 40 thu God ne ondraetst, thaet thu eart on thaere ylcan genytherunge? and wyt witodlice be uncer aér-daedum onfoth: 41 sothlice thes naht yfeles ne dyde. And he cwaeth to tham 42 Haelende: Dryhten, gemun thu me, thonne thu cymst on thinríce. Tha cwaeth se Haelend to hym: To-daeg thu bist 43 mid me on Paradiso. Tha waes nean seo syxte tíd, and 44 thystro waeron ofer ealle eorthan, oth tha nigothan tíde. And 45 sunne waes athystrod, and thaes temples wah-ryft wearth tosliten on middan. Tha cwaeth se Haélend, clypiende my- 46
celre stéfne: Faéder, ic bebeode minne gast on thine handa:
and thus cwethende he forth-ferde. Tha se hundred-man 47 geseah thaet thar geworden waes, he God wuldrode, and cwaeth: Sothlice thes man waes rihtwis. And eall wered 48 the aet thisse waefer-synne waeron, and gesawon tha thing the gewurdon, waeron agen gewende, and heora breost beoton. Tha stodon ealle his cuthan feorran, and tha wíf the him fyligdon fram Galilea, thas thing geseonde. And tha 50 án man on náman Iosep, se waes gerefa, gód wer and rihtwis (thes ne gethwaerede heora getheahte, and heora 51 daedum); fram Arimathia, Iudea ceastre, se sylfa ge-anbidode Godes ríce: ðes genealaehte to Pilate, and baed ðaes Haelendes lichaman; and nyther-aléde hyne, and on scytan befeold, and lede hine on aheawene byrgene, on ðaere naes ða gyt naenig aléd. And ða waes se daeg parasceué, ðaet ys gegearwunge, and saeter-daeg onlyhte.

Tha wíf ðe hym fyligdon, ðe comon mid him of Galilea, hig gesawon ða byrgene, and hu his lichama aléd waes:
and hig cyrdon, and gearwedon wyrt-gemang and sealfa;
and on saeter-daeg hig gestildon aefter bebode.

XXIV. On anum reste-daege, swythe aér on daeg-red, hig comon to ðaere byrgene, and baéron mid him ða wyrtgemang, ðe hig gegearwedon. And hi gemetton ðone stán awyltne of ðaere byrgene. And ða hig in to ðaere byrgene eodon, hig ne gemetton ná ðaes Haelendes lichaman. And ða waes geworden, ða hig on mode áfaerede waéron be ðyssum, ða stodon twegen weras with hig on hwítum reafe. And ða hig ondredon, and heora and-wlitan on eorðan hyldon, hig cwaédon to him: Hwi sece gé lybbendne mid deadum? Nys he hér, ac he arás:
geðencath hu he spaec with eow, ða gýt ða he waes on Galilea, and cwaeth, Thaet mannes Sunu bith geseald on handa synfulra manna, and beon ahangen, and ðy ðryddan daége arísan. And hig gemundon his worda. And hig gewend-on fram ðaere byrgene, and cyddon eall ðys ðam endleof-enum, and eallum othrum. Sothlice waes Maria Magdalene, and Iohanna, and Maria Iacobi, and othre ðe mid him waeron, ðá saedon ðas ðing ðam apostolum. And ðas word waeron geðuhte beforan him swa woffung; and hig ne gelyfdon him. Tha arás Petrus, and arn to ðaere byrgene; and alutende he geseah ða lin-waeda sylfe aléde;
and he ferde wundrigende ðaes ðar geworden waes.

THYS GEBYRATH ON OTHERNE EASTER-DAEG.

And ða ferdon twegen of him on ðaet castel ðaet waes on faece syxtig furlanga fram Hierusalem, on naman Emaus.

And hig spaecon, hym betweonan, be eallum ṭham ṭhe ṭhar 14 gewordene waeron. And ṭha hig spelledon and mid him 15 smeadon, se Haelend genealaehte, and ferde mid him.
Sothlice heora eagan waeron forhaefde, ṭhaet hig hine ne ge- 16 cneowun. And he cwaeth to him: Hwaet synd ṭha spraeca 17 ṭhe gyt reccath inc betweonan, gangende, and synd un-róṭe? Tha andswarode him án, ṭhaes nama waes Cleophas, 18 and cwaeth: Eart ṭhu ána forwrecen on Hierusalem, and nystest ṭhu ṭha ṭhing ṭhe on hyre gewordene synd on ṭhysum dagum? He saede ṭha: Hwaet synd ṭha ṭhing? And hig 19 saedon: Be ṭham Nazareniscan Haelende, se waes wer and witega, mihtig on spraece and on weorce beforan Gode and eallum folce: and hu hine sealdon ṭha heah-sacerdas 20 and ure ealdras on deathes genytherunge, and ahengon hine. We hopedon ṭhaet he to alysenne waere Israhel; 21 and nu ys se ṭhrydda daeg to-daeg ṭhaet ṭhis waes geworden.
And eac sume wíf of úrum us bregdon, ṭha waeron aer 22 leohte aet ṭhaere byrgene, and na his lichaman gemetton: 23 hig comon, and saedon, ṭhaet hig gesawon engla gesihthe; ṭha secgath hine lybban. And ṭha ferdon sume of úrum to 24 ṭhaere bergene, and swa gemetton swa ṭha wíf saedon: hine hig ne gesawon. Tha cwaeth se Haelend to him: Eala 25 dysegan, and on heortan laete to gelyfenne eallum ṭham ṭhe witegan spaecon: hu ne gebyrede Criste ṭhas ṭhing 26 ṭholian, and swa on his wuldor gán? And he rehte him 27 of Moyse and of eallum haligum gewritum, ṭhe be him awritene waeron. And hig genealaehton ṭham castele, ṭhe 28 hig to ferdon: and he dyde swylce he fyr faran wolde.
And hig nyddon hine, and cwaedon: Wúna mid unc, 29 forṭham ṭhe hit aefen-laecth: and se daeg waes áhyld. And he in-eode, ṭhaet he mid him wunode. And ṭha he mid 30 him saet, he onfencg hláf, and hine bletsode, and braec, and him raehte. Tha wurdon heora eagan geopenode, 31 and hig gecneowon hine; and he gewat fram him. And 32 hig cwæ̀don him betwynan: Naes uncer heorte byrnende, ṭha he on wege with unc spaec, and unc halige ge-33 writu ontýnde? And hig arison on ṭhaere ylcan tíde, and wendon to Hierusalem, and gemetton endleofan ge-34 gaderode, and ṭha the mid him wæ̀ron, and cwaedon, Thaet

35 Drihten sothlice aras, and Simone aetywde. And hig rehton ṭha ṭhing, ṭha the on wége gewordene waeron, and hu hig hine oncneowon on hlafes bríce.

THYS GEBYRATH ON THRYDDAN EASTER-DAEG.

36 Sothlice ṭha hig ṭhis spraecon, se Haelend stód on heora mydlene, and saede him: Sib sy eow: ic hyt eom: ne 37 ondraede ge eow. Tha wæ̀ron hig gedrefede and afaerede, 38 and hig wéndon ṭhaet hig gast gesawon. And he sæ̀de him: Hwi synd ge gedrefede, and geṭhancas on eowre 39 heortan astigath? Geseoth mine handa and mine fet, ṭhaet ic sylf hit eom: grápiath, and geseoth ṭhaet gást naefth 40 flæ̀sc and ban, swa ge geseoth me habban. And ṭha he 41 ṭhys saede, he acteowde him fet and handa. Tha cwaeth he to him, ṭha hig ṭha gyt ne gelyfdon, and for gefeán 42 wundredon: Haebbe ge her aenig ṭhing to etanne? And hig brohton hym dael gebraeddes fisces, and beo-breád.
43 And ṭha he aet beforan hym, he nam ṭha láfa, and him
44 sealde, and cwaeth to hym: Ṭhys synd ṭha word ṭhe ic spraec to eow, ṭha ic waes ṭha gyt mid eow; forṭham ṭhe hyt ys neod ṭhaet beon ealle ṭhing gefyllede, ṭhe awritene synd on Moyses æ̀e, and on witegum, and on Sealmum be mé.
45 Tha ontynde he him andgyt, ṭhaet hig ongeton hálige 46 gewrítu; and he cwaeth to him, Thaet ṭhus ys awriten, and ṭhus gebyrede Criste tholian, and ṭhy ṭhryddan daege of 47 deathe arisan; and beon bodod on his naman daed-bote and synna forgyfenesse on ealle ṭheóda, agynnendum ferde fram him, and waes fered on heofen. And hig ge- 52 biddende, hig gehwurfon on Hierusalem mid mycelum gefean. And hig waéron symle on tham temple, Gode heri- 53 gende, and hyne eac bletsigende. Amen.

THAET GODSPEL

AEFTER IOHANNES GERECEDNYSSE

I. On fruman waes Word, and thaet Word waes mid
2 Gode, and God waes thaet Word. Thaet waes on fruman
3 mid Gode. Ealle thing waeron geworhte thurh hyne; and 4 nan thing naes geworht butan him. Thaet waes líf the on 5 him geworht waes, and thaet líf waes manna leoht. And thaet leoht lyht on thystrum; and thystro thaet ne genamon.
6 Man waes fram Gode asend, thaes nama waes Iohannes.
7 Thes cóm to gewitnesse, thaet he gewitnesse cythde be tham 8 Leohte, thaet ealle men thurh hyne gelyfdon. Naes he Leoht, ac thaet he gewitnesse forth-baere be tham Leohte.
9 Soth Leoht waes, thaet onlyht aelcne cumendne man on 10 thysne middan-eard. He waes on middan-earde, and middan-eard waes geworht thurh hine, and middan-eard 11 hine ne gecneow. To hys agenum he cóm, and hig
12 hyne ne underfengon. Sothlice swa hwylce swa hyne

THYS SCEAL ON TYWES-DAEG, ON THAERE PALM-WUCAN.

Sothlice ic secge eow, Thaet hwáetene corn wunath ana, 24 buton hyt fealle on eorþan, and sy dead: gif hyt byth dead, hyt bringth mycelne waestm. Se þe lufath his 25 sáwle forspilth hig; and se the hatath his sawle on þyson middan-earde, gehylt hig on écon lífe. Gif hwa þenige 26 me, fylige me: and min þen bith þaer þaer ic eom. Gif me hwa þenath, min Faeder hine weorthath. Nu min sawl 27 ys gedrefed; and hwaet secge ic? Faeder, gehael me of þisse tide: ac for þam ic com on þas tíd. Faeder, gewuldra þinne naman. Tha com stefn of heofone, þus cwethende: And ic gewuldrode, and eft ic gewuldrige.

Seo maenigo þe þaer stod, and þaet gehyrde, saedon þaet hyt þunrode: sume saedon þaet engel spaece with hyne.
Se Haelend him andswarode, and cwaeth: Ne com þeos stefn for minon þingon, ac for eowrum þingon. Nu ys middan-eardes dóm: nu byth þyses middan-eardes ealdor út-aworpen. And gif ic beo úp-ahafen fram eorþan, ic teo ealle þing to me sylfum. Þaet he saede, and tacnode be hwylcum deathe he wolde sweltan. Seo maenigo him andswarode, and cwaeth: We gehyrdon on þaere æ þaet Crist bith on ecnysse: and humeta segst þu, Hit gebyrath þaet mannes Sunu beo úp-ahafen? hwaet ys þes mannes Sunu? Tha cwaeth se Haelend: Nu gyt ys lytel leoht on eow: gáth þa hwile þe ge leoht habbon, þaet þystro eow ne befón: se þe gaeth on þystron, he nat hwyder he gaeth. Tha hwile þe ge leoht habbon, gelyfath on leoht, þaet ge syn leohtes bearn. Þas þing se Haelend him saede, and eode, and bediglode hine fram him. Tha he swa mycele tacn dyde beforan him, hig ne gelyfdon on hine: þaet þaes witegan word Isaías waere gefylled, þe he cwaeth, Dryhten, hwa gelyfde þaes þe we gehyrdon? and hwam waes Dryhtnes stréncth geswutelod?
Forþig hig ne mihton gelyfan, forþam Isaías cwaeth eft,
He ablende heora eagan, and ahyrde heora heortan, þaet nig ne geseon mid heora eagon, and mid heora heortan ne ongyton, and syn gecyrrede, and ic hig gehǽle.
Isaias saede þas þing, þa he geseah hys wuldor, and spraec be him. And þeah manega of þam ealdron gelyfdon on hine; ac hig hyt ne cythdon for þaera Pharisea þingon; þy-laes hig man út-adrife of hyra gesomnunge.
Hi lufodon manna wuldor swithor þonne Godes wuldor.

(LATE FIRM OF WILEY AND PUTNAM),

PUBLISHER, BOOKSELLER,

AND

135 BROADWAY, NEW YORK; AND 142 STRAND, LONDON.

IMPORTATION OF FOREIGN BOOKS.

THE AMERICAN LITERARY AGENCY (established in 1838) IS STILL CONTINUED AT 142 STRAND, LONDON; and through it and other arrangements in France and Germany, every facility is afforded to private persons, as well as to BOOKSELLERS and PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, for procuring Books, Stationery, Maps, &c., &c., from all the principal cities in Europe, in the most expeditious and economical manner.

Particular attention is given also to the procuring of OLD and SCARCE BOOKS, by means of advertising, &c., &c. Mr. Putnam believes that his twelve years' experience in the execution of orders of all kinds, gives him advantages that are inferior to none, and which cannot fail to be appreciated by those who favor him with their business.

An order for a single volume will at all times receive the same careful attention as larger orders. Any party preferring to correspond directly with the London house, will find his orders promptly attended to, provided they are addressed "G. P. PUTNAM, 142 Strand, London," and accompanied with a remittance or satisfactory references.

BOOKS, &c., DUTY FREE.

 By a recent Act of Congress, ALL COLLEGES, ACADEMIES, SEMINARIES OF LEARNING, OR OTHER SOCIETIES ESTABLISHED FOR PHILOSOPHICAL OR LITERARY PURPOSES, OR FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE FINE ARTS, may IMPORT BOOKS, MAPS, COINS, STATUARY, PHILOSOPHICAL APPARATUS, &c., FREE OF DUTY. Public institutions of this description, wishing to secure this advantage, will have their orders executed in a most satisfactory manner by forwarding them to G. P. PUTNAM direct.

N.B.—CATALOGUES of New Books published in London, with CHEAP LISTS, &c., are put up monthly in small packages, and forwarded GRATIS to all who may desire them.

ORDERS FORWARDED BY EVERY STEAMER;

and, if desired, and the books can be readily procured, they will be received by return steamer.

In October will be published

THE SKETCH-BOOK.

BY WASHINGTON IRVING.

One volume square octavo.

Illustrated with a Series of highly-finished Engravings on wood, from designs by Darley and others, engraved in the best style by Childs, Herrick, &c. This edition will be printed on paper of the finest quality, similar in size and style to the new edition of "Halleck's Poems."

THE ILLUSTRATED KNICKERBOOKER.

With a Series of Original Designs, in 1 vol. 8vo, is also in preparation.

MR. IRVING'S NEW WORKS

Now nearly ready for the press: including

The Life of Mohammed; The Life of Washington; new volumes of Miscellanies, Biographies, &c.

 This being the first uniform and complete edition of Mr. Irving's works, either in this country or in Europe, the publisher confidently believes that the undertaking will meet with a prompt and cordial response. To say this, is perhaps superfluous and impertinent: for it is a truism that no American book-case (not to say library) can be well filled without the works of Washington Irving; while the English language itself comprises no purer models of composition.

Alexander on Isaiah.

COMMENTARY ON THE EARLIER PROPHECIES ISAIAH. By Prof. J. A. Alexander. Royal 8vo. cloth, $3.

COMMENTARY ON THE LATER PROPHECIES OF ISAIAH. By Prof. J. A. Alexander. Royal 8vo. cloth, $2 50.

The two volumes, taken together, are among the most learned and erudite works of the kind which have issued for some years past from the American press.—Christian Advocate and Journal.

The hand of the thorough scholar is evident throughout, not only in the critical selection of the best materials, but in the condensation and clear arrangement of those materials.—Prot. Churchman.

It supplies a want which has long been felt,—the want of a commentary of higher aim than the unfolding of a poem, and of profounder character than a mere repository of suggestive practical thoughts.—New York Review.

It presents one of the most learned, luminous, discriminating, and satisfactory expositions of the evangelical Prophet extant. * * * We cannot be mistaken in recommending to every clergyman and student of divinity, in our Church at least, to make some sacrifice in securing these volumes.—Presbyterian.

The sound, independent judgment, which Prof. Alexander everywhere displays, combined with true candor, modesty, and a spirit of profound reverence for the inspired volume, distinguishes his work most advantageously from most of the critical productions of the age, and entitles it to be regarded as a model of Biblical investigation.—London Patriot.

The general character of the work, in point of scholarship, judgment, theological tone, and exegetical tact, will be readily anticipated from the fame of the author, and his long devotion to studies of this kind.—New York Evangelist.

Anglo-Saxon Course of Study.

A COMPENDIOUS ANGLO-SAXON AND ENGLISH DICTIONARY. By the Rev. Joseph Bosworth, D.D.,F.R.S., &c., &c. 1 vol. 8vo. cloth, $3.

 This new edition may almost be called a new book, from the numerous additions and improvements that have been made to it. In accordance with the author's wishes it will be published at so moderate a price as to bring it within the reach of all who take an interest in the language of their forefathers. Indeed, no scholastic establishment ought to be without it, when it is considered that five-eighths of what we daily speak and read is of Anglo-Saxon origin.

A GRAMMAR OF THE ANGLO-SAXON LANGUAGE. By Louis F. Klipstein, M.A.,LL.M. and Ph. D. of the University of Giessen. 12mo. cloth, $1 25.

This is a good Grammar of a language that deserves far more study than it receives. Few know how rich the pure Saxon is, but those who have made it their study; and how expressive and beautiful it is in comparison with the tawdry, high-flown language in daily use, especially in what is called "fine writing."

THA HALGAN GODSPEL ON ENGLISC.—The Anglo-Saxon Version of the Holy Gospels. Edited by Benjamin Thorpe, F.S.A. Reprinted by the same, 12mo. cloth, $1 25.

ANALECTA ANGLO-SAXONICA, with an Introductory Ethnographical Essay, Copious Notes, Critical and Explanatory, and a Glossary in which are shown the Indo-Germanic and other Affinities of the Language. By Louis F. Klipstein, M.A., LL.M. and Ph.D., of the University of Giessen.

NATALE SANCTI GREGORII PAPÆ.—Ælfric's Homily on the Birth-day of St. Gregory, and Collateral Extracts from King Alfred's Version of Bede's Ecclesiastical History and the Saxon Chronicle, with a full Rendering into English, Notes Critical and Explanatory, and an Index of Words. By Louis F. Klipstein, M.A.,LL.M. and Ph.D., of the University of Giessen.

EXTRACTS FROM THE ANGLO-SAXON GOSPELS, A Portion of the Anglo-Saxon Paraphrase of the Book of Psalms, and other Selections of a Sacred Order, in the same Language, with a Translation into English, and Notes Critical and Explanatory. By Louis F. Klipstein, M.A.,LL.M. and Ph.D., of the University of Giessen.

The attention of professors in our Colleges and other Institutions of learning, as well as that of the literati of the country in general, is particularly called at this time, to the subject of Anglo-Saxon. In Great Britain no study has received a greater impulse of late years, while no other of a philological nature has stronger claims upon the English and American youths, or even more matured scholar; intimately connected, as it is, with the proper understanding of the structure and force of our common language. A knowledge of Anglo-Saxon, we are justified in saying, is essential to a thorough acquaintance with English, and considering the ease with which the tongue can be acquired, and the facilities now being offered for the prosecution of the study, it is to be hoped that it will no longer meet with unmerited neglect.

Foremost of the institutions of learning in our country which have entered with ardor into the study of Anglo-Saxon, is the University of the "Old Dominion," and we trust that her example will be soon followed by all others. "The interest taken in it by our students," says Prof. De Vere of that Institution, "is very gratifying to every lover of the 'true well of English undefiled.'"

Arnold.—First French Book.

On the Plan of Henry's First Latin Book. Edited by Prof. A. G. Green. (In press.)

Architecture. Hints on Public Architecture.

Issued under the Direction of the "Smithsonian Institution." Imperial 4to. with Illustrations. (In preparation.)

This work will contain numerous and valuable illustrations, including two perspective views of the buildings of the Smithsonian Institution. The Appendix will contain the results of a research under the auspices of the Institution, to test the properties of the most important building materials throughout the United States.

Bastiat.—Sophisms of the Protective Policy.

Translated from the French of Fr Bastiat. With an Introduction, by Francis Lieber, LL.D., Professor in South Carolina College, Editor of the Encyclopædia Americana, &c. &c. 12mo. cloth, 75 cents.

Believing that this little work contains a greater amount of political truth than any that has been published in many years, and that its pointed style and happy method of illustration render it peculiarly fitted to improve the ingenuous minds of the young, we hope most devoutly that it may be adopted into the library of every district school in the country.—Mirror.

Bibliotheca Sacra and Theological Review.

Conducted by B. B. Edwards and E. A. Park, Professors at Andover, with the Special Aid of Dr. Robinson and Professor Stuart. Published quarterly in February, May, August, and November. $4 per annum. Volumes 1, 2, 3, and 4, $3 each.

This is, perhaps, the most ambitious journal in the United States. We use the word in a good sense, as meaning that there is no journal among us which seems more laudably desirous to take the lead in literary and theological science. Its handsome type and paper give it a pleasing exterior; its typographical errors, though sufficiently numerous, are so comparatively few, as to show that it has the advantage of the best American proof-reading; while for thoroughness of execution in the departments of history and criticism, it aims to be pre-eminent.—N. Y. Churchman.

Book of Dainty Devices.

Lays of the Western World; comprising Original Articles by distinguished writers, and superbly illuminated by T. W. Gwilt Mapleson, Esq. Elegant small folio—bound in an unique manner in morocco extra. $12.

 This superb volume (to be published in November) will be the most perfect specimen of Illumination and of Binding ever produced in this country. It contains original Contributions by Bryant, Herbert, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. S. G. Howe, Miss Pindar, Miss Bayard, &c.

Burton.—The Anatomy of Melancholy.

By Burton. New and beautiful edition, with Engravings. 1 vol. royal 8vo. cloth, $2 50.

 This is one of those sterling old works which were written for "all time," full of learning, humor, and quaint conceits. No library can be complete without it.

Contains more solid information than any twenty works ever compiled in the English Language.—Byron.

A mine of forgotten scholarship.—Dem. Review.

Calvert.—Scenes and Thoughts in Europe.

By an American. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 50 cents.

His descriptions of scenery, his remarks on art, his accounts of the different people among whom he sojourned, are all good.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Whether speaking of scenery, national character, or objects of art, the book displays fine taste and large views, based upon principles of permanent value. After glancing through it, as is our wont with books of the kind, when we have our own catalogue raisonnée of all the topics, we find that the customary two hours' acquaintance will not answer at all, and have laid the volume aside, really to read in some long, precious leisure day. And we recommend to all good readers to do it the same honor, for they will find it but justice.—Tribune.

Carlyle.—The French Revolution:

A History. By Thomas Carlyle. 2 vols. 12mo. green cloth, $2.

His French Revolution is considered one of the most remarkable works of the age—as at once the poetry and philosophy of history.—Hunt's Merchant's Mag.

Carlyle.—Letters and Speeches of Oliver Cromwell.

By Thomas Carlyle. 2 vols. 12mo. green cloth, $2 00.

A work more valuable as a guide to the study of the singular and complex character of our pious revolutionist, our religious demagogue, our preaching and praying warrior, has not been produced.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Carlyle.—Past and Present: Chartism.

By Thomas Carlyle. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, $1.

To say that the book is replete with instruction, thought, and quaint fancy, is unnecessary; but we may mention it as one, par excellence, which should be read at the present juncture.—Tribune.

Carlyle is not to be judged by the ordinary rules of criticism. He has his own style in writing, as he has his own way of thinking, and it requires some acquaintance with him to make him familiar. After being accustomed to his gait, we can keep up with him in his erratic course, and if we are not entertained with his companionship, it must be our own fault. Brilliant thoughts are poured forth in a strange idiom, learning lends its aids at a call, recondite truth is made manifest, and although we have sometimes to pause, and question the soundness of his views, yet, on the whole, we cannot fail to have the mind stirred up to activity in his company.—Presbyterian.

Chaucer and Spenser.

Selections from the Poetical Works of Geoffrey Chaucer. By Charles D. Deshler. Spenser, and the Faery Queen. By Mrs. C. M. Kirkland. 1 vol. 12mo. $1 13.

—— The same, extra gilt, $1 50.

A portion of their writings are presented in a beautiful and convenient form, and with the requisite notes and modifications.—Home Journal.

Chaucer and Spenser are presented to the American reader under a single cover, in a thick, handsome duodecimo; of course, only selections are given from each, but they are made with great judgment and taste, and present some of the sweetest, richest, choicest, and yet least known gems of English poetry, in a pleasant form. Deshler is the editor of Chaucer, Mrs. Kirkland, of Spenser. Both have done good service to Poetry by their labor. The book must be a welcome one everywhere, and wherever it goes it will be sure to cultivate a taste and awaken a desire for more of the glorious song of which it gives such precious parts.—Courier and Enq.

Clarke, Mrs. Cowden.—Concordance to Shakspeare.

A Complete Verbal Index to all the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet. 1 large vol. 8vo. $6, cloth.

A most surprising monument of the compiler's labor and enthusiasm . . . . incomparably the most valuable effort of the kind that has ever been given to the world."—London Examiner.

Clarke, Mrs.—Shakspeare Proverbs;

Or, the Wise Saws of our Wisest Poet, collected into a Modern Instance. Square 18mo. with Woodcuts, one neat vol. 75 cents, cloth.

The present is the best collection of passages culled from Shakspeare which we know of, since it contains only those things which can be detached from their context without suffering any diminution of their effect.—Evening Post.

The lady, who has classified with much judgment the various maxims and sentences, is Mrs. C. Clarke, whose pains-taking is equally evident, in the minute and most accurate concordance to Shakspeare, which she gave the world some months since. "Shakspeare Proverbs" is an elegant gift-book, and a text-book of prudential philosophy, practically set forth. It is worth tenfold the books got up for similar purposes, and is worth studying.—Churchman.

Coe's Drawing Cards.

STUDIES IN DRAWING, in a Progressive Series of Lessons on Cards; beginning with the most Elementary Studies, and Adapted for use at Home and Schools. By Benjamin H. Coe, Teacher of Drawing. In Ten Series—marked 1 and 10—each containing about eighteen Studies. 25 cents each.

The design is:

I.—To make the exercises in drawing highly interesting to the pupil.

II.—To make drawings so simple, and so gradually progressive, as to enable any teacher, whether acquainted with drawing or not, to instruct his pupils to advantage.

III.—To take the place of one-half of the writing lessons, with confidence that the learner will acquire a knowledge of writing in less time than is usually required.

IV. To give the pupils a bold, rapid, and artist-like style of drawing.

They are executed with taste and skill, and form, in our judgment, one of the best series of lessons in drawing which we have met with. The author justly remarks that the "whole is so simplified as to enable any teacher, without previous study, to instruct his pupils with advantage.

Coleridge.—Biographia Literaria;

Or, Biographical Sketches of my Literary Life and Opinions. By Samuel Taylor Coleridge. From the 2d London edition, Edited by H. N. Coleridge. 2 vols. 12mo. green cloth, $2.

His mind contains an astonishing map of all sorts of knowledge, while in his power and manner of putting it to use, he displays more of what we mean by the term genius than any mortal I ever saw or ever expected to see.—John Foster.

This, the latest, and to us the most interesting of all Coleridge's works, is probably the most complete edition that will ever be published; embracing, as it does, the corrections and additions of the son, and afterwards of the widow of that son—the daughter, by marriage, of the distinguished poet. Biography has ever been our favorite study and recreation; and, in our opinion, no kind of reading is more instructive—a remark that applies with increased force to autobiography, where we can enter, as it were, into the interior life of the subject, and become familiar with the hopes, joys, sorrows, and trials of the individual man, under every circumstance of his existence.—Hunt's Merchant's Mag.

Who has not heard of Samuel Taylor Coleridge—Shakspeare's genial and reverential critic—the man, to hear whom preach, Hazlitt once walked ten miles in a winter's day? "His voice rose like a stream of rich distilled perfume; and for myself," he adds, "I could not have been more delighted if I had heard the music of the spheres." Coleridge seems to have possessed, as it were, two separate and distinct spiritual essences—the one looking upon and marking the wonderful workings of the other, apparently uninfluenced by the passions and feelings which moved it. The "Biographia Literaria, or Biographical Sketches of his Literary Life and Opinions," is the history of the one written by the other. We value it as treasure."—Albany Argus.

Cortez.—Despatches.

Addressed to the Emperor Charles V., written during the Conquest, and containing a Narrative of its Events. Translated, with an Introduction and Notes, by Hon. George Folsom. 16mo. $1 50, bds.

—— The same, larger edition, 8vo. bds. $2.

Croton Aqueduct.

History, Description, and Illustration of the Croton Aqueduct. By T. B. Tower. 25 engravings, 1 vol. royal 4to. $3 50.

Dana.—A System of Mineralogy.

Comprising the most Recent Discoveries. With numerous woodcuts, and 4 copperplates, 2d edition, 8vo. cloth, $3 50.

This work does great honor to America, and should make us blush for the neglect in England of an important and interesting science.—Lond. Athenæum.

Bears marks on every page of great industry and determination in collecting the most recent facts. In completeness, systematic arrangement, and accuracy, it is believed to be exceeded by no other work extant.—N. Y. American.

De Hart.—Courts Martial.

Observations on Military Law, and the Constitution and Practice of Courts Martial; with a Summary of the Law of Evidence, as applicable to Military Trials: adapted to the Laws, Regulations, and Customs of the Army and Navy of the United States. 8vo. law sheep, $3.

Downing.—Cottage Residences.

Or, a Series of Designs for Rural Cottage Villas, and their Gardens and Grounds, adapted to North America. Illustrated by numerous engravings, 3d edition, 8vo. $2, cloth.

Here are pleasant precepts suited to every scale of fortune among us; and general maxims which may be studied with almost equal profit by the householder in the crowded city, and the man of taste who retires with a full purse, to embody his own ideas of a rural home.

Downing.—Fruits and Fruit Trees of America;

Or, the Culture, Propagation, and Management, in the garden and orchard, of Fruit Trees generally; with Descriptions of the finest varieties of Fruits, native and foreign, cultivated in this Country. 12mo. 9th edition, revised, cloth, $1 50.

—— The same, 8vo. cloth, $2 50.

—— The same, illustrated by 80 superb plates, drawn and colored in the finest style by Paris Artists, royal 8vo. half morocco, top edge gilt, $15.—New edition in preparation.

We have never seen the science of Pomology presented in so analysed a form, nor in one more attractive.—Hunt's Mag.

For clearness and perspicuity, this work is unequalled by any extant, evincing an amount of personal experience and extensive research, which nothing but the most careful and close investigation could attain.—N. E. Farmer.

An invaluable vade-mecum in the fruit department.—Christian Intelligencer.

Downing.—Landscape Gardening.

The Theory and Practice of Landscape Gardening, adapted to North America; with a view to the Improvement of Country Residences: comprising Historical Notices and General Principles of the Art, Directions for laying out Grounds and arranging Plantations, the description and cultivation of Hardy Trees, decorative accompaniments to the House and Grounds, the formation of pieces of Artificial Water, Flower Gardens, &c. 2d edition, 8vo. with illustrations, cloth, $3 50.

Most instructive and elegant book.—Boston Advertiser.

Downing.—Country Houses.

Or, New Designs for Rural Cottages, Farm Houses, and Villas, with Interiors and Furniture. Numerous Illustrations. (In Press.)

Dwight.—Grecian and Roman Mythology.

With 17 original illustrations. Adapted to the use of Universities and High Schools, and for popular reading. By M. A. Dwight. With an Introduction by Tayler Lewis, Professor of Greek, University of New York. 12mo. half bound, $1 50.

Also a fine edition in octavo, with illustrations, cloth, $2.

—— Half morocco, top edge gilt, $3 75.

 This work has been prepared with great care, illustrated with 20 effective outline drawings, and is designed to treat the subject in an original, comprehensive, and unexceptionable manner, so as to fill the place as a text book which is yet unsupplied; while it will also be an attractive and readable table book for general use. It will be at once introduced as a text book in the University of New York and other colleges and schools.

Evenings with the Old Story Tellers.

One volume, 12mo. green cloth, 50 cents.

A quiet humor, a quaintness and terseness of style will strongly recommend them.—English Churchman.

Fairfax's Tasso.

GODFREY OF BULLOIGNE; or, the Recovery of Jerusalem: done into English Heroical Verse. From the Italian of Tasso, by Edward Fairfax. Introductory Essay, by Leigh Hunt, and the Lives of Tasso and Fairfax, by Charles Knight. 1 vol. 12mo. $1 25.

The completest translation, and nearest like its original of any we have seen.—Leigh Hunt.

The Jerusalem Delivered is full, to the last stanza, of the most delightful inventions, of the most charming pictures, of chivalric and heroic sentiment, of portraits of brave men and beautiful women—in fine, a prodigal mine of the choice resources and effects of poetry. So it has been always known to the world, so Fairfax brings it to us.—Mirror.

Ford.—Spaniards and their Country.

Gatherings from Spain, by Richard Ford, Esq. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 88 cents.

The best English book, beyond comparison, that ever has appeared for the illustration, not merely of the general topography and local curiosities, but of the national character and manners of Spain.—Quarterly Review.

Mr. Ford has shown himself an adept in the art of literary réchauffage. His masterly and learned "Hand-Book of Spain" having been found by some who love to run and read, too small in type, too grave in substance, he has skimmed its cream, thrown in many well-flavored and agreeable condiments, and presented the result in one compact and delightful volume, equally adapted to amuse by an English fireside or to be useful on the Spanish highway.—Blackwood.

One of the pleasantest, most life-like, and instructive books of travel over this most interesting region of the world. It contains very spirited and graphic sketches of scenery, character, &c., and will give the reader, probably, a better and more satisfactory impression of the appearance of the country, the temper, habits, &c., of the people, than any other book upon the same subject. It is lastied, complete, in a single volume.—Courier and Enquirer.

Fouque.—Undine and Sintram.

Undine, a Tale; and Sintram and his Companions, a Tale. From the German of La Motte Fouqué. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 50 cents.

The style and execution of this delightful romance are very graceful.—Hawkins's Germany.

Fouqué's romances I always recommend—especially the wild, graceful, and touching Undine.—Sarah Austin.

French.—Historical Collections of Louisiana.

By B. F. French. 8vo. cloth, $1 50.

Gilman, Mrs.—The Sybil,

Or, New Oracles from the Poets; a fanciful Diversion for the Drawing Room. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth extra, gilt, $1 50.

A sweet book of short and most pleasant quotations from the poets, illustrative of character, tastes, loves, &c., formed into a drawing-room game, with questions and answers. It is beautifully designed, beautifully executed, and beautifully robed for the gift-dispensing Christmas and New Year public.—Evangelist.

Goldsmith.—The Vicar of Wakefield.

By Oliver Goldsmith. 1 vol. 12mo. neatly printed, cloth, 50 cents.

—— The same, with Illustrated Designs by Mulready, elegantly bound, gilt edges, $1.

Gray, Prof. A.—The Botanical Text-Book.

For Colleges, Schools, and Private Students.

Part I.—An Introduction to Structural and Physiological Botany.

Part II.—The Principles of Systematic Botany; with an Account of the Chief Natural Families of the Vegetable Kingdom, &c., &c.

Second Edition. Illustrated with more than 1000 Engravings. 12mo. $1 75, cloth.

Remarkable for its correctness and perspicuity.—Silliman's Journal.

Gray.—Genera Floræ Boreali-Orientalis Illustrata.

The Genera of the Plants of the United States: illustrated by Figures and Analyses from Nature. By Isaac Sprague. Superintended, with Descriptions, &c., by Prof. A. Gray. Vol. 1, plates, 1—100, 8vo. $6, cloth.

Green, Dr. H.—Bronchitis.

A Treatise on Diseases of the Air Passages; comprising an Inquiry into the History, Pathology, Causes and Treatment of Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Clergyman's Sore Throat, and other Affections of the Throat, with colored Plates. In 1 vol. 8vo. $2 50, cloth.

It is so rare, in this advanced state of the science, to come upon a new theory clearly demonstrable by actual experiment, that we hail this book with pleasure.—New York Mirror.

There are thousands who will look at the work with all the interest that suffering inspires.—Observer.

Hackley.—Elements of Trigonometry,

Plane and Spherical. By Rev. C. W. Hackley, Professor of Mathematics, Columbia College, New York. 8vo. cloth, $1 25.

Hamilton Papers.—The Official Papers of the late

MAJOR-GENERAL ALEXANDER HAMILTON. Compiled from the Originals in the Possession of Mrs. Hamilton. 1 vol. 8vo. cloth, $2 50.

Head. Bubbles from the Brunnen.

By Sir Francis Head. 12mo. green cloth.

At once an instructive and amusing book. It contains a great deal of information.—London Times.

Hervey.—The Book of Christmas:

Descriptive of the Customs, Ceremonies, Traditions, Superstitions, Fun, Feeling, and Festivities of the Christmas Season. By Thos. K. Hervey. 12mo. green cloth, 63 cts.

—— The same, gilt extra, $1.

Every leaf of this book affords a feast worthy of the season.—Dr. Hawks's Church Record.

Hood.—Prose and Verse.

By Thomas Hood. 12mo. green cloth, 87 cts.

—— The same, gilt extra, $1 25.

A very judicious selection, designed to embrace Hood's more earnest writings, those which were written most directly from the heart, which reflect most faithfully his life and opinions.—Broadway Journal.

Howitt.—Ballads and other Poems.

By Mary Howitt. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 63 cts.

—— The same, with fine portrait, gilt extra, $1.

Her poems are always graceful and beautiful.—Mrs. S. C. Hall.

We cannot commend too highly the present publication, and only hope that the reading public will relish "Mary Howitt's Ballads and other Poems," now for the first time put forth in a collected form.—Albion.

Hunt.—Imagination and Fancy.

By Leigh Hunt. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 62 cts.

—— The same, gilt extra, $1.

Hunt.—Stories from the Italian Poets:

Being a Summary in Prose of the Poems of Dante, Pulci, Boiardo, Ariosto, and Tasso; with Comments throughout, occasional passages Versified, and Critical Notices of the Lives and Genius of the Authors. By Leigh Hunt. 12mo. cloth, $1 25.

—— The same, fancy gilt, $1 75.

Mr. Hunt's book has been aptly styled, a series of exquisite engravings of the magnificent pictures painted by these great Italian masters.—Journal of Commerce.

Irving's, Washington, Works.

New and Complete Edition, Revised and Enlarged by the Author. In 13 elegant duodecimo volumes, beautifully printed with new type and on superior paper, made expressly for the purpose, bound in cloth extra.

As follows:—

THE SKETCH-BOOK, in one volume.
KNICKERBOCKER'S NEW YORK, in one volume.
TALES OF A TRAVELLER, in 1 vol.
BRACEBRIDGE HALL, in one volume.
THE CONQUEST OF GRANADA, in one volume.
THE ALHAMBRA, in one volume.
ASTORIA, in one volume.
THE CRAYON MISCELLANY, in one volume. Abbotsford, Newstead, The Prairies, &c.
THE SPANISH LEGENDS, in 1 vol.
THE LIFE AND VOYAGES OF COLUMBUS, and THE COMPANIONS OF COLUMBUS, in three volumes.
ADVENTURES OF CAPT. BONNEVILLE, in one volume.

Irving.—A History of New York,

From the Beginning of the World to the End of the Dutch Dynasty: containing, among many surprising and curious matters, The Unutterable Ponderings of Walter the Doubter, the Disastrous Projects of William the Testy, and Chivalric Achievements of Peter the Headstrong; the three Dutch Governors of New Amsterdam: being the only Authentic History of the Times that ever hath been or ever will be Published. By Diederich Knickerbocker. The Author's new and revised edition, 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, $1 25.

—— The same, cloth gilt, $1 75; half calf, $2; half morocco, top edge gilt, $2 25; calf extra, $2 50.

It has undergone the revision of the author, and is prefaced with the "Author's Apology," though we think he has much more reason to apologize for his long silence than for anything he has written. The mechanical execution of this work deserves special praise. —Providence Journal.

Time will only serve to enhance its value and increase, if possible, its popularity.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

Irving.—The Sketch-Book.

The Sketch-Book. By Geoffrey Crayon, Gent. New and revised edition, 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, $1 25.

—— The same, cloth gilt, $1 75; half-calf, $2 00; half morocco, top edge gilt, $2 25; calf extra, $2 50.

Irving.—The Illustrated Sketch-Book.

With 15 original Designs by F. O. C. Darley, Esq., Engraved on Wood by the first Artists, elegantly printed on superfine calendered paper, 1 vol. square 8vo. bound in extra cloth, $3 50; cloth, gilt edges, $4; Turkey morocco, extra, $6.

—— The same—proof impression—(only 50 copies printed) super extra morocco, $7 50.

Illustrated with a series of highly finished engravings on wood, from designs by Darley and others, and printed on paper of the very finest quality. These illustrations will be superior to any engravings on wood yet produced in this country, so that the volume may form one of the richest gift-books of the next holiday season.—Express.

The engravings are to be on wood, from designs by Darley and others. The Knickerbocker History is also to be illustrated, and it cannot fail to afford great scope to the talents of a humorous artist. We confess that we know of none in this country so competent to the task of illustrating this work as the young artist selected for the purpose, Felix Darley, some of whose designs we have had the pleasure of seeing. They are full of the quiet Crayonish humor peculiar to the author, and drawn with the same elegant finish and freedom from blemish which distinguish all his works. Until we saw these designs we were incredulous as to the ability of any of our native artists to properly illustrate the humorous passages in Irving's works.—Evening Mirror.

Keats.—Poetical Works.

The Poetical Works of John Keats. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, 87 cts.

—— The same, gilt extra, $1 25.

They are flushed all over with the rich lights of fancy; and so colored and bestrewn with the flowers of poetry that, even while perplexed and bewildered in their labyrinths, it is impossible to resist the intoxication of their sweetness, or to shut our hearts to the enchantment they so lavishingly present.—Francis Jaffrey.

Keats.—Life, Letters, &c.

The Life, Letters, and Literary Remains, of John Keats. Edited by Richard Monckton Milnes. Portrait and fac-simile. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, $1.

—— The same, gilt extra, $1 50.

This volume is one of the most enticing books that has recently issued from the English press. It is introduced by a brief preface and biographical sketch by the editor, but the Life is composed chiefly of the letters of the Poet; the greater part of them were written to his brother George who died a few years since in St. Louis.—Mirror.

Kinglake.—Eothen;

Or, Traces of Travel brought Home from the East. 12mo. green cloth, 50 cts.

Eothen is a book with which everybody, fond of eloquent prose and racy description, should be well acquainted.—U.S. Gazette.

Its highest praise is, that it is a book of travels, without being disfigured with the pedantry, the simulated rapture, the mathematical exactness and pictorial falsehood, the dryness and dulness, which too often accompany works of the class. The author catches the spirit and the image of what he sees, and has sufficient skill of expression to convey both to other minds. The book is a prose poem, half way between Don Juan and Childe Harold, and evincing a brilliant combination of the man of sentiment and the man of the world.

Klipstein.—Study of Modern Languages.

Part First; French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, German, and English. By L. F. Klipstein, M.A., LL.M. and Ph.D. One volume. Imperial 8vo. Cloth, $1; paper, 75 cts.

This volume, furnishing specimens of the several languages named in the title, possesses at the same time all the advantages of literal translations. The elementary phrases, conversations, cards, letters, proverbs, and idioms, will be found useful, and the notes appended are calculated to remove difficulties in the way of the learner. We trust the work will receive an adequate patronage, as in that case the author promises to extend its scope, so as to render it a complete text book of the most important languages of Europe.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

Lamb.—Essays of Elia.

By Charles Lamb. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, $1.

——— The same, gilt extra, $1 25.

Shakspeare himself might have read them, and Hamlet have quoted them; for truly was our excellent friend of the genuine line of Yorick.—Leigh Hunt's London Court Journal.

To the reader, he never comes as a book, but as a companion; we do not so much read him, as hear him talk. His essays have an indestructible vitality in them. As a humorist, a poet, a critic of books and manners, he is alike eminently original and delightful.—Graham's Magazine

Lamb.—Specimens of the English Dramatic Poets.

By Charles Lamb. 1 vol. 12mo., green cloth, $1 13.

——— The same, gilt extra, $1 50.

Nowhere are the resources of the English tongue in power, in sweetness, terror, pathos; in description and dialogue, so well displayed.—Broadway Journal.

A selection in which are displayed the utmost judgment and taste; the critical notices are extremely valuable, and above any praise of mine.—Singer (in his edition of Shakspeare).

A work which ought never to be out of print, for it is one full of sweetness and beauty. "These volumes, indeed, abound in gems curious and of inestimable value."—Literary Gazette.

Charles Lamb's Specimens of English Dramatic Poets, is of the deepest interest; he was a noble workman, and he carries us on through whole scenes by a true unerring emotion; he was a poetical mind laboring in Poetry.—D'Israeli

Mahan, Prof. D. H.—Civil Engineering.

For the use of the Cadets in the United States Military Academy. Fourth Edition, mostly rewritten, and augmented with many additional subjects and plates. 8vo. $3, cloth.

Mahan.—Field Fortifications.

Containing instructions on the methods of laying out, constructing, and attacking intrenchments, with the general outlines. Also of the attack and defence of permanent Fortifications. 2d edition, 12mo. $1, cloth.

Mahan—Advanced Guard, Out-Post,

And Detachment Service of Troops, and the manner of Posting and Standing them in presence of the Enemy; with historical sketch of the rise and progress of Tactics, &c., &c. 16mo. 75 cents, cloth.

We anticipate that it will become the "vade mecum" of the soldier.—Albany Argus.

Milton's Prose Works.

The Prose Works of John Milton. Edited by Rev. Rufus Wilmott Griswold. 2 vols. 8vo., cloth, $4.

Montagu's Selections.

Selections from the Works of Taylor, Latimer, Hall, Milton, Barrow, Lowth, Brown, Fuller, and Bacon. By Basil Montagu. 1 vol. 12mo., green cloth, 50 cents; cloth gilt, $1.

This volume contains choice extracts from some of the noblest of the old English writers.—Cincinnati Atlas.

Nordheimer, Prof. Isaac.—Hebrew Grammar.

Two vols. in 1, 8vo. cloth, $3 50.

To clergymen and others, who would be glad to recover and increase their knowledge of the Hebrew, an attentive study of this work would afford an invaluable aid, and we may add delightful entertainment.

Nordheimer.—Chrestomathy,

Or, a Grammatical Analysis of Selections from the Hebrew Scriptures, with an Exercise in Hebrew Composition. 8vo. $1 50, half bound.

Oriental Life Illustrated.

Being a New Edition of Eöthen, or Traces of Travel in the East. With fine Illustrations on Steel. 12mo. elegantly bound, extra cloth gilt, $1 50.

It will be found to be a rare gem in its way, and one of the most suitable works for a holiday gift-book ever published in New York.—Express.

Parsons.—The Rose,

Its History, Poetry, Culture, and Classification, with two large colored plates, and other engravings, in one royal 8vo. vol. $1 50, cloth.

Indeed, this volume is at once agreeable, instructive, and curious, a very pleasant companion to the mere reader, while to the amateur and the professed cultivator of this most beautiful of Flora's gifts it will be invaluable.—Com. Advertiser.

We love the book.—Union Magazine.

Patrick, Lowth, Arnold, and Whitby.

Commentary on the Bible, by Bishops Patrick, Lowth, Arnold, Whitby, and Lowman. 4 vols. imperial 8vo. cloth, $15.

Peacock.—Headlong Hall and Nightmare Abbey.

1 vol. 12mo., green cloth, 50 cents.

This is a witty and amusing book.—Tribune.

Were we to be asked our private opinion as to who is the wittiest writer in England, we should say the author of Headlong Hall. Perhaps no man has seen the follies of his day with a clearer and juster eye than the present author; he investigates, and then reasons, and by placing the fact in its simplest, places it also in its most ridiculous forms. He calls things by their right names; and in this age of high sounding words and happy epithets, this little process has a most curious effect.—London Literary Gazette.

Pearls of American Poetry.

Second edition, superbly illuminated in the manner of the ancient missals by T. W. Gwilt Mapleson, Esq. Printed in gold and colors on Bristol board. Elegantly and strongly bound in full Morocco, Antique style. One volume quarto, $12.

 Of this splendid and costly work, a small number were issued for this season, but it was not ready for actual publication. It is now completed in a superior style, and is the most splendid book of the time

On beautiful vellum paper, are printed in colored characters and with every variety of type, some of the choicest brief poems of American writers—Bryant, Longfellow, C. F. Hoffman, and others. Each initial letter is a picture, and each page is illuminated as exquisitely as any of the choicest of antique illuminated volumes—and all from original designs. The conception of these works of art, as they richly deserve to be called, the drawing, painting, gilding, are of the highest order. The binding is in keeping with the rest—that of the olden day—solid, rich, and tasteful. Altogether this is a volume of great attraction for the rare beauty of its adorning and the discrimination of its selections.—Courier.

Poe.—Eureka, A Prose Poem:

Or, the Physical and Metaphysical Universe. By Edgar A. Poe, Esq. Handsomely printed. 12mo. cloth, 75 cents.

We shall be greatly surprised if this work do not create a most profound sensation among the literary and scientific classes all over the Union—displaying as it does a reasoning power and grasp of thought which cannot possibly fail to excite the "special wonder" of even the most careless reader.—Express.

There is talent unquestionably in these fanciful speculations, and we are occasionally reminded of that remarkable work "The Vestiges of Creation" by the character and tendency of the author's scientific romancing.—Boston Evening Transcript.

Poole.—Index to Subjects.

An Alphabetical Index to Subjects treated in the Reviews, and other Periodicals, to which no Indexes have been Published. 8vo. $1 in paper, or $1 25 half bound.

 This volume comprises an Index to all articles in 560 volumes of the most important periodical works.

An exceeding useful and valuable publication of 154 pages, to all who have need of a convenient book of reference to the many hundred volumes of Standard Periodicals in our Libraries. The work before us is a monument to the industry and perseverance of its author.—Express.

Princeton Essays, Theological and Miscellaneous.

Reprinted from the Princeton Review (including the Contributions of the late Rev. Albert B. Dod). First and Second Series, 8vo. each $2 50, cloth.

Those who are familiar with the masculine spirit of this Review—the free, hardy English, transparent as water, and always drawn from the purest wells, in which its discussions are conducted, will require no commendation of this volume.—Brooklyn Advertiser.

These articles are able, quick-witted, racy, and pungent, and manifest the power which earnest zeal always possesses.—N. Y. Evangelist.

A wide range of subjects, embracing not merely topics usually discussed in the theological publications of the day, but those which excite the widest and deepest interest among the reflecting and instructed men of the age.—Courier.

Robinson, Rev. Dr.—Bibliotheca Sacra.

Smith.—A Christmas Allegory.

A Christmas Allegory of an Original and Attractive Character. By Mrs. E. Oakes Smith. Illustrated from Designs by F. O. C. Darley, Esq. 18mo. cloth, gilt edges.

St. John.—The Three Days of February, 1848:

With Portrait of Lamartine. 18mo. cloth, 63 cts.

It has the freshness, vivacity, and detail which we can never hope to find in a history written by one who draws his materials from dusty old records and musty newspapers.—Mirror.

Schramke.—Croton Aqueduct.

Description of New York Croton Aqueduct, in English, German, and French; with 20 Plates. 4to. boards, $2.

It is the most splendid work on Hydraulic Architecture that is sold in this country.—Scientific American.

Mr. S. was one of the engineers engaged upon it, and has erected an enduring and worthy monument to this great and noble enterprise.—Courier.

Tappan—Elementary Logic.

By Prof. H. P. Tappan. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, $1.

Tasso—Godfrey of Bulloigne;

Or, the Recovery of Jerusalem: done into English Historical Verse. From the Italian of Tasso, by Edward Fairfax. Introductory Essay, by Leigh Hunt, and the Lives of Tasso and Fairfax, by Charles Knight. 1 vol. 12mo. $1 25.

The completest translation, and nearest like its orignal of any we have seen.—Leigh Hunt.

Taylor—Views a-Foot;

Or, Europe seen with Knapsack and Staff. By J. Bayard Taylor. New edition, with an additional Chapter, &c., and a Sketch of the Author in Pedestrian Costume, from a Drawing by T. Buchanan Read. 12mo. cloth, $1 25. (Nearly ready)

—— The same, fancy cloth, gilt extra, $1 75.

Besides being one of the most entertaining books of travel we ever read, it is written under circumstances of the most interesting, although at a first glance, seemingly the most unfavorable.—Boston Atlas.

If anything in the literary way can be piquant, it should be a lively, manly, and poetical book, written by a man who has made the tour of Europe without means, except what he was earning by the way, and who saw everything worth seeing on the route, at the expense of five hundred dollars.—Christian Inquirer.

Taylor.—Poems and Ballads.

The Poems and Ballads of J. Bayard Taylor. Illustrated from Designs by T. Buchanan Read, Esq. 12mo. cloth. (In press.)

Thackeray.—Journey from Cornhill to Cairo.

By Michael Angelo Titmarsh. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 50 cts.

It is wonderful what a description of people and things, what numerous pictures, what innumerable remarks and allusions it contains.—Douglas Jerrold's Mag.

Torrey and Gray.—Flora of North America;

Containing Descriptions of all the known Indigenous and Naturalized Plants growing north of Mexico; according to the Natural System. Vol. 1, 8vo. $6, cloth.

—— The same, Part I. to VI., each $1 50: Part VII., $1.

Tower, F. B.—Croton Aqueduct.

History, Description, and Illustrations of the Croton Aqueduct. Royal 4to. with 25 engravings, $3 50, cloth.

Tschudi.—Travels in Peru.

By Dr. J. J. Von Tschudi. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, 87 cts.

The book contains a great deal of curious information, and will be found useful as a book of reference by all who are interested in the commerce, natural history, and general statistics of Peru.—Blackwood's Mag.

Walton.—The Lives of Donne, Walton, Hooker,

Herbert, and Sanderson. By Izaak Walton. New edition. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, 75 cts.

The Lives are the most delightful kind of reading. Walton possesses an inimitable simplicity and vivacity of style.—Mrs. Kirkland.

Warburton.—The Crescent and the Cross;

Or, the Romance and Reality of Eastern Travel. By Elliot Warburton. 1 vol. 12mo. green cloth, $1.

This delightful work is from first to last, a splendid Panorama of Eastern scenery, in the full blaze of its magnificence.—London Morning Post.

NOTICES OF IRVING'S WORKS.

A handsome edition of this distinguished writer's works has long been needed.—Am. Courier.

We like very well Mr. Putnam's Prospectus of the Works of Washington Irving. The edition is to be revised and enlarged by the Author himself. The first volume of the New Series is to be Knickerbocker's History of New York; to which we may anticipate an addition of several new and curious Notes. The Second volume will be the Sketch Book—and then the first volume of Columbus. With the exception of the last mentioned, each work will be comprised in one volume, a plan which we like very much, whenever it can be made practicable. To the "Spanish Legends," several new papers, now first collected, are to be added.

Besides this Series, Mr. Putnam advertises an illustrated edition of the Sketch Book, to be published in October next, and designed for a New Year's Gift. The engravings are to be on wood, from designs by Darley and others. The Knickerbocker History is also to be illustrated, and it cannot fail to afford great scope to the talents of a humorous artist. We confess that we know of none in this country so competent to the task of illustrating this work as the young artist selected for the purpose, Felix Darley, some of whose designs we have had the pleasure of seeing. They are full of the quiet, Crayonish humor peculiar to the author, and drawn with the same elegant finish and freedom from blemish which distinguish all his works. Until we saw these designs we were incredulous as to the ability of any of our native artists to properly illustrate the humorous passages in Irving's writings.—Evening Mirror.

It is with pleasure that we have noticed an announcement from that enterprising publisher, George P. Putnam, of a new, uniform, and complete edition of the Works of Washington Irving.—Southern Literary Messenger.

We are happy to announce that a new, uniform, and complete edition of these admired works is about to be published. We congratulate the American reader on this announcement, and we have no doubt that Mr. Putnam will find his enterprise nobly rewarded, for never was a new edition of any works more needed than this.—Southern Lit. Gaz.
